Dear Chairman Nadler and Ranking Member Jordan:

On October 1, 2021, I transmitted to the Committee Recommendation 2021-5, Clarifying Statutory Access to Judicial Review of Agency Action, 86 Fed. Reg. 53262 (Sept. 27, 2021), of the Administrative Conference of the United States, which was adopted by the Conference's Assembly at its 75th plenary session under the authority of the Administrative Conference Act, 5 U.S.C. § 591 et seq.

The Recommendation identifies the “various ways in which some” judicial review statutes “create unnecessary obstacles to judicial review or overly complicate the process of judicial review,” and recommends that Congress eliminate them by enacting a general judicial review statute that would “promote efficiency and fairness and . . . reduce unnecessary litigation.”* Paragraph 4 sets forth the particulars of the recommended statute.

In Paragraph 5, the Conference asks its Office of the Chairman “to prepare and submit to Congress a proposed general review statute for consideration that would provide for the statutory changes in Paragraph 4.”

I am pleased to transmit the proposed statute. As you will see, the Office of the Chairman recommends that it be enacted as an amendment to Title 28 of the U.S. Code.

* The Act authorizes the Conference to make recommendations to Congress to improve the judicial review of agency action “to the end that private rights may be fully protected and regulatory activities and other Federal responsibilities may be carried out expeditiously in the public interest; . . . to reduce unnecessary litigation in the regulatory process; [and] . . . to improve the effectiveness of laws applicable to the regulatory process.” 5 U.S.C. § 591.
