(Adopted December 10-11, 1968)

Recommendation

Title 28 of the United States Code should be amended to eliminate any requirement of a minimum jurisdictional amount before U.S. district courts may exercise original jurisdiction over any action in which the plaintiff alleges that he has been injured or threatened with injury by an officer or employee of the United States or any agency thereof, acting under color of Federal law. This amendment is not to affect other limitations on the availability or scope of judicial review of Federal administrative action.
