

Comment on Proposed ACUS Recommendation: Selection of Administrative Law Judges

Alan B. Morrison, Senior Fellow

Selection of ALJs: Page 4, line 56. The administration is proposing to abolish OPM. I hope that it will continue the USAJOBS website. I suggest a revision to read "announce their vacancies on the website USAJOBS (currently operated by the Office of Personnel Management)"

I would also add on line 59, after "lawyers" "and bar associations".
